Reflections ...

DEAR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS
We thank you for being so patient and waiting for us while we toured the south of Europe and the east of Scranton the past year.

Actually, our world tour was very nice. We got to meet some new people and make some new friends.

WE HOPE THAT nobody expects us to act goofy like we used to, because during our touring we got cultured.

SPECIAL THANKS to Ann Marie Novibilski and to all those nice people at the unemployment office (oops, at the Bureau of Employment Security – Job Service).

AND TO THOSE guys and gals over at Hendrick Manufacturing; you're all great. Even you, Dean Swingle ... one of these days somebody will catch you hiding that Council President Idris D. (Donald) Edwards and Jermyn Patrolman Harry Esgro both apologized to the magistrate for allegedly taking him to task during a "hot-under-the-collar" midsumner meeting in July.

Yurgosky rose during the public portion of the meeting, stating that he had "listened to the tape of the July 9 meeting four times."

He accused Edwards, Esgro and Councilman Robert Westington of charging him with "not doing his job, playing politics and throwing out too many cases."

"I have my records for the last 7½ or 8 years, with me," Yurgosky emphasized.
